Kennedy Holomsheck

Heart of Stone | Six

The six women of King Henry take turns sharing their stories. Jane Seymour, while admitting she may have been the only one Henry truly loved, claims that his love was conditional on her having produced a male heir to his throne, and that she had stood by him despite knowing his many faults.

Kathryn Brown & Tristan Breedlove

People Will Say We're in Love | Oklahoma

The other characters think, correctly, that Laurey and Curly are in love. In this song they warn each other not to behave indiscreetly, lest people misinterpret their intentions. Neither wants to admit to the other - or themselves - his or her true feelings.

Krysta Scorgie

Home | Beauty and the Beast

Belle chooses to take the place of her father and becomes a prisoner in the castle. In "Home", Belle sings about the castle she now has to live in, what home is and whether she could ever be happy in the castle.

Karsen Fuller

So Much Better | Legally Blonde

When Elle sees her name on Callahan's internship list, she realizes that this moment, that she achieved by herself, is so much more satisfying than any artificial moment she's had with Warner, her boyfriend who recently dumped her.

Chelsea Gomez & Sebastian Fernandez

First Date, Last Night | Dogfight

Eddie realizes he had treated Rose wrong by asking her out on a dare, and is trying to apologize in the best way he can by taking her out for a real date. For Rose, it is the first date she's ever been on, and for Eddie, it is the last night he's spending in the States before being shipped out to fight in Vietnam War. The song is about how they both contemplate their reasons why they decided to come.

Quinton Porter
Bring Him Home | Les Miserables

Valjean is praying for the safe return of Marius to Cosette, his adopted daughter, after the student goes to fight with the revolutionaries.

Kathryn Brown
